

RUBRIC Outcome III – Doctoral Degree Ethical and Social Responsibility

Date _____ Rater _____ Paper Code _____

Ethical and Social Responsibility: Express ethical and social responsibility in one's social, professional, artistic, and/or scholarly practice.

Graduate Competencies:

1. Explain social and ethical theories upon which the profession is built and assess their applicability and effectiveness.

2. Address historical, sociological, psychological, political, philosophical, and ethical influences on the presence of difference among individuals, alternative identities, and social groups and encourage others to address these issues in their lives.

1Criteria	1- Unacceptable	2-Developing	3-Proficient	4-Exemplary
Competency 1. Differentiate conceptions of ethics & social responsibility and explain their impact on scholarship or profession.	Does not identify conceptions of ethics & social responsibility or explain their impact on scholarship or profession.	Identifies conceptions of ethics & social responsibility and explains their impact on scholarship or profession.	Differentiates conceptions of ethics & social responsibility and explains their impact on scholarship or profession.	Differentiates and analyzes conceptions of ethics & social responsibility and explains their impact on scholarship or profession.
	1	2	3	4
Competency 2.a Address historical, sociological, psychological, political, or philosophical influences on ethics of individuals, alternative identities, and social groups.	Does not identify the historical, sociological, psychological, political, or philosophical influences on the ethics of individuals, alternative identities, and social groups.	Identifies the historical, sociological, psychological, political, or philosophical influences on the ethics of individuals, alternative identities, and social groups.	Addresses historical, sociological, psychological, political, or philosophical influences on the ethics of individuals, alternative identities, and social groups.	Critiques the historical, sociological, psychological, political, and philosophical influences on the ethics of individuals, alternative identities, and social groups.
	1	2	3	4