Abba P. Schwartz Research Fellowship
Compatible UI&U programs	Ph.D.
Deadline	March
Award Amount	$3,100 stipend
Description	The Fellowship is intended to support a scholar in the production of a substantial work in the areas of immigration, naturalization, or refugee policy. These were subjects of particular personal and professional interest to Mr. Schwartz. The successful candidate will develop at least a portion of her or his work from original research in archival materials from the collections of the Kennedy Library.
Disciplines	Immigration, naturalization, or refugee policy
Academic Level	Doctoral
Citizenship
Requirements	To apply, submit an application form (pdf) accompanied by a brief proposal (three to four pages) in the form of a letter describing the planned research, its significance, the intended audience, and expected outcome; two letters of recommendation from academic or other appropriate references; a sample of your writing (circa ten pages); a project budget; and a vita. List the collections in the Kennedy Library and other institutions which you plan to use. Describe how the funds will be applied, other fellowships or grants which will support the project and whether matching funds are available to you from your institution or elsewhere. Preference is given to projects not supported by large grants from other institutions. Describe your qualifications and similar research projects you have undertaken. The estimated per diem cost of accommodations, meals and incidentals for Boston is $225.

American Academy in Rome Fellowship
Compatible UI&U programs	M.A. Online, Ph.D.
Deadline	2009/10 application will be available August 2009
Award Amount	Stipend, meals, a bedroom with private bath, and a study or studio. Those with children under 18 live in partially subsidized apartments nearby.

	Winners of 6-month and 11-month fellowships receive stipends of $12,500 and $25,000, respectively.
Description	Rome Prize fellowships are designed for emerging artists and for scholars in the early or middle stages of their careers. In the case of scholars, preference will be given to applicants for whom research time in Italy, and especially in the city of Rome, is essential, and who have not had extensive prior experience there. The Academy also offers a variety of opportunities for advanced scholars and artists. These include endowed residencies in the same fields as those in which the Rome Prize is awarded and a program for visiting artists and scholars.
Disciplines	ARTS (architecture, design, historic preservation and conservation, landscape architecture, literature, musical composition, visual arts) and HUMANITIES (ancient studies, medieval studies, Renaissance and early modern studies, modern Italian studies)
Academic Level	Pre-doctoral in Humanities only; Doctoral
Citizenship	Must be United States citizens at the time of application
Requirements	The primary criterion for selection is excellence, as perceived both in achievement and in promise. Jurors consider the quality of submitted application materials and the interviews for what these reveal about past achievement and the potential for future development. Since an important aspect of what the Academy offers to Rome Prize winners is exposure to Rome, all other factors being equal, preference will be given to those applicants who have not had extensive prior experience living and studying and/or working in Rome.
